APRICOT

One day
I found a teddy bear
in the garbage.

It was torn apart and dirty.

I put back his eyes.

I put back his nose.

I put back his mouth.

I put back his ears.

I put back his arms.

I put back his legs.

What's this?

A tail!!

And I cleaned him up!

The background of the left page is a soft-focus illustration of a landscape with rolling green hills and a yellow sky. Floating in the air are several musical notes and staves, some in blue and green, others in pink and purple, creating a whimsical, musical atmosphere.

Here he is!
